

ASA-D2

Brown Jordan Outdoor Kitchens is leading the outdoor industry by showcasing color, style and design and inspiring entertainment, culinary creativity, and leisure living. We are established as leaders in transforming outdoor entertainment from a simple barbecue island to a fully functional outdoor entertainment space, in which the outdoor kitchen is central to the space.

Collaborating with Cosentino and Daniel Germani Designs, Brown Jordan Outdoor Kitchens proudly presents, the ASA-D2, the next generation in outdoor cooking and entertainment.

The ASA-D2 is a contemporary, free-standing outdoor kitchen utilizing ultra-durable materials to beautifully withstand exposure to the elements. Its modular design gives consumers the flexibility to select from four finishes and choose their appliance options, while its 360-degree functionality provides access to storage and shelving on both sides of the unit.

ASA-D2

A new generation in outdoor kitchens.

Brown Jordan Outdoor Kitchens partnered with Dekton by Cosentino and Daniel Germani Designs to re-imagine the outdoor cooking and entertaining spaces.

The ASA-D2 is an innovative outdoor kitchen for any setting, enhancing the space with versatility, functionality and design.

Able to withstand the most severe weather conditions, the ASA-D2 features an aluminum structure and stainless steel body for strength and stability with an ultra-compact Dekton countertop for extra durability.
